

A Maskil of Asaph

1-11 “Why?!”

O God, why do You cast us off forever? [נֶצַח, netzach] Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?

<sup>2</sup> Remember Your congregation [עֵדָת, eidaṯ], which You have acquired of old, which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your heritage! Remember Mount Zion, where You have dwelt. <sup>3</sup> Lift up Your feet to the perpetual [נֶצַח] ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary! <sup>4</sup> Your foes have roared in the midst of Your meeting place [מוֹעֵד, mo'ed]; they set up their own signs for signs. <sup>5</sup> They were like those who swing axes in a forest of trees. <sup>6</sup> And all its carved wood they broke down with hatchets and hammers. <sup>7</sup> They set Your sanctuary on fire; they profaned the dwelling place of Your name, bringing it down to the ground. <sup>8</sup> They said together in their hearts, “We will utterly subdue them”. They burned all the meeting places [מוֹעֵד, mo'ed] of God in the land. <sup>9</sup> We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet, and there is none among us who knows how long. <sup>10</sup> How long, O God, is the foe to scoff? Is the enemy to revile Your name forever [נֶצַח]? <sup>11</sup> Why do You hold back Your hand, Your right hand? Take it from the fold of Your garment and destroy them!

12-17 A Note of Hope

Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth. <sup>13</sup> You divided the sea by Your might; You broke the heads of the sea monsters on the waters. <sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness. <sup>15</sup> You split open springs and brooks; You dried up ever-flowing streams. <sup>16</sup> Yours is the day, Yours also the night; You have established the heavenly lights and the sun. <sup>17</sup> You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth; You have made summer and winter.

18-23 Your reputation is at stake

Remember this, Adonai, how the enemy scoffs, and a foolish people reviles Your name. <sup>19</sup> Do not deliver the soul of Your dove to the wild beasts; do not forget the life of Your poor forever [לְעוֹלָם]. <sup>20</sup> Have regard for the covenant, for the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence. <sup>21</sup> Let not the crushed one turn back in shame. Let the poor and needy praise Your name. <sup>22</sup> Arise, O God, fight Your fight. Remember how the foolish insult You all the day! <sup>23</sup> Do not forget the voice of Your foes, the uproar of those who rise against You, which goes up continually!
